The small residential village of Anarita is located 100m above sea level, affording magnificent views of the surrounding countryside stretching down towards the coast and Aphrodite's Rock.

Historically an agricultural area, with olive and citrus groves, this traditional Cypriot village retains a wealth of character with an array of modern facilities.

Anarita village is situated between Pafos and Limassol towns. This historic area is home to many famous ancient sights including the Sanctuary of Aphrodite, Kourion amphitheatre and Kolossi castle. The highway which serves the island is easily accessible from the village.

Anarita is home to the Asprokremmos Dam which offers alternative activities like fresh water fishing and rowing.

Fresh white kitchens with granite work surfaces are fitted with a stainless steel sink and provision for electrical appliances.

The development is set around three large outdoor pools offering a choice of relaxation areas thoughtfully furnished with sun loungers and umbrellas providing the perfect location to unwind after an energising swim.

The grounds incorporate large leisure areas and an extensive green area.

Maintenance of our landscaped communal areas is cared for by our services team. Private landscaping and garden maintenance agreements are also available through our service company.
